

Legal Services Policy

1 Purpose

To establish the role and responsibilities of the Legal Office.

2 Scope

This policy applies to all Employees.

3 Policy Statement

The Legal Office assists the University to meet Regulatory Compliance Obligations, comply with University Policies and to accomplish strategic and operational goals.

This policy outlines the types of legal services available to the University. For guidance on how to use these services, refer to the Legal Services Procedure.

4 Principles

4.1 Exclusive client

The Legal Office represents and acts in the interests of the University.

The Legal Office may only be engaged on legal matters concerning the University. The Legal Office cannot provide advice or assistance in relation to personal matters or in relation to a complaint, dispute, claim or other matter raised by a person against the University, including such matters which arise out of their employment by, engagement with, or enrolment at the University.

4.2 Responsibilities of University Lawyers

University Lawyers are independent legal advisors to the University and generally do not act as Decision-makers on University matters.

The Legal Office is rarely the owner or sponsor of a University transaction or activity and accordingly does not make any commercial, business or strategic Decision about the advisability or commercial merits of the proposed action or transaction.

The Legal Office will from time to time facilitate the engagement of External Lawyers to provide specialist legal services.

4.3 Legal Services

The Legal Office provides all of the services listed in the Legal Services Procedure, including but not limited to:

- general legal advice, such as relating to legislative obligations;
- litigation and dispute resolution; and
- advice on University agreements or contracts, including the preparation of terms and conditions which are compliant with law, and advising how to express the commercial terms directed by the Decision-maker in a way that is legally enforceable.
