

Council Election Policy

1 Purpose

To provide information and guidance on the election of members of the University Council and other committees at the University with elected members, including the Academic Board.

2 Scope

This policy applies to all University Members.

This policy and associated procedure apply to elections for the categories of elected members of the Council pursuant to s.15(2) of the University of Southern Queensland Act 1998 (the Act).

This policy and procedure do not apply to appointments made by the Council to fill a casual vacancy in accordance with s.20A(2) and s.20A(5) of the Act.

This policy and associated procedure may also be applied to election of members of other committees at the University including the Academic Board.

3 Policy Statement

Prior to the existence of this policy, the University conducted all its Council elections using the University of Southern Queensland (Conduct of Council Elections Statute) 2010. Following changes made in 2017 to all the Acts of Queensland universities, each university is required to have an election policy with function and form as stipulated in the relevant Act. The University of Southern Queensland Act 1998 (the Act) requires that the Council must make a policy about the conduct of elections for its categories of membership including elected academic Employees, general (professional) Employees, and Students. Under the Act, the Council Election Policy is to be published on the University's website. The Policy takes effect on the day it is published on the University's website, or any later date as stated in the Policy, pursuant to s.26AA(4) of the Act.

4 Principles

Elections will be conducted in accordance with the provisions of the Act and principles commonly associated with democratic elections including independence, fairness, transparency, integrity, privacy and competence.
